The Jewish Heritage Centre operates a contemporary dormitory (including kosher dining facilities) which is located directly on the campus of Lauder Business School (additional application required). The Jewish Heritage Fund can provide scholarships for students who need financial support (additional application required).

Please state your personal wish/opinion:

- ☐ I need/want to stay in the Dormitory
- ☐ I think I am eligible for a scholarship
- ☐ I want to take my meals in the kosher dining hall
- ☐ none of the above

Important notice: Applicants who are accepted for the academic study program of LBS are not necessarily accepted to grant a scholarship or accommodation in the dormitory. Students who are granted a scholarship or accommodation in the dormitory are primarily required to successfully pass the academic admission process.
